

9 OCTOBER 2014

1. Boqueria, Brixton SW2

If you're craving tapas, head south of the river to this slick Spanish restaurant inspired by Barcelona's iconic food market. Start with a glass of cava or something from the all-Spanish wine list and then graze your way through the menu. Their hand-carved jamon, suckling pig, and black rice with squid and mussels are not to be missed!

View restaurant >

2. Saigon Saigon, Hammersmith W6

East meets west at this authentic Vietnamese restaurant near Ravenscourt Park. Expect a warm welcome, steaming bowls of pho, and dishes fragrant with lemongrass, chilli and fresh herbs.

View restaurant >

3. Paesan, Angel EC1

On a street lined with great restaurants, Paesan stands out from the crowd thanks to its stripped back good looks, rustic southern Italian menu and basement cocktail bar, Bitters & Rye.

View restaurant >

4. The Dairy, Clapham SW4

This popular bistro is fast becoming a big name on the restaurant scene thanks to its fantastic modern British menu. We love dishes like west coast monkfish, and salt marsh potatoes with sea vegetables.

View restaurant >

5. Ganapati, Peckham SE15

Always packed with Peckham locals, this affordable local favourite serves seriously good south Indian food. We love their huge vegetarian thalis, potato-stuffed dosas and fragrant fish curries.

View restaurant >

OpenTable UK @OpenTableUK · 9 de oct.

Today we're celebrating neighbourhood gems like

@TheDairyClapham @BoqueriaTapas & Ganapati - bit.ly/10Ue7M4

↩ Responder ↻ Retwittear ★ Favorito